Promoted From a Cottage in Palmerston to a Mansion in Glory.

Died at Palmerston July 29th, 1867,
Sirres, Mrs. Mooney

The heavenly ranks are swelling,
Our voices by canes rewarded.
Are for their toll rewarded.
By the blower's hand "Well done,"
And through the vale they go.
While we are left to follow.

Our sister Mrs. Mooney has been a soldier for some time and has always testified, not only in the barracks but by her life, that her heart had been created for God. She was a widow, and had lost her husband, her son, and her only child, a girl, who died of sickness for a short time, meanwhile telling all who visited her how precious Jesus was. In life she proved the truthfulness of the Saviour's words: "Lo I am with you always, to the end of the world." The day she "went home," the Captain while visiting sang:

"When the chariot's lowering,
If I have no sin,
As I have no wrong,
We'll take me in."

all were astir at the strength and energy also displayed whilst joining in the chorus. About ten minutes before she died the soldiers, having requested, marched out in full uniform and held a meeting. A eunice band, over sister Mrs. Mooney's last moment, asked her if Jesus was precious now, she answered "He is my strength and stay. He's with me in every way." In saying this, she clung to her chair, and then clung to him in true to God and the Army. On the day of her birth a large number of soldiers and friends gathered to witness the ceremony. We formed a ring around the coffin, and a circle of decorated bunting placed in the centre. The Spirit was at work and many hearts were touched whilst listening to the different officers, especially while Capt. Halpin told of the recent death of his son, and of the services rendered to the country where he held another service at the open grave. On the solemnity, oh, the deep sighing, the weeping, and even unanswered sighing by fixed beds, it was hard to make out the general command in the "mournful" command in the "mournful" command.

The memorial service was held in the barracks the following Sunday evening. Each commander who testified spoke of our sister's life having been consistent and upright, and of the love and sympathy left behind, of a life spent in His service. When the life had been rigid there is little need of inquiring about the death. Brother Will Evans, son of the deceased, told us that his father, who had told in touching words his bereaved sons, how in his last bed had caused his departed mother sorrow and anxiety on account of his wrong-doing, and how of late, through the grace of God he had turned to a new life. The family wept as he spoke of the only link which bound him to Palmerston being gone. He was soon about to leave but only to follow where Christ had led. May God bless him all, and may we who are left, indeed.

"Right on, red banner! your armes
But tolling ill to Christ, we bring
Each sinner; then in Heaven we'll raise
Our voices in stern judgment."

Capt. H. L. Bowers

From Peterboro' to Heaven.

It has pleased God in His goodness to call one of our dear comrades from the ranks below to join the throng of redeemed ones above. Captain W. H. Mitchell, who has been a soldier in this corps about two years and who hitherto lived the life of a free Christian. We visited him during his sickness and were always very much comforted by the clear and bright testimony he was able to give during the whole time, having a bright hope blooming with immortality beyond death, and the grave, even while laying upon his deathbed at times of great suffering, he was comforted and strengthened, and looking those who came to see him to be faithful unto death, for when you are brought down here you will then know the value of a life well spent in the service of God, and many of his servants are here who were forced to see the necessity of being as he talked to them upon his dying bed, and many of his comrades have received fresh encouragement from his example. The following is the beautiful hymn he wrote before his last:

EASTERN DIVISION.

CARIBBEAN—Capt. Collier. Another week has rolled by sternly and with it another week of trials and tribulations. We can say we have done our duty and faithfully warned the people of the wrath of God and the judgment of God upon us all. Truly we do praise God for salvation that changes man and women's hearts and gives a clean heart, and being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

RICHMOND—Capt. White. This God, we can look back over the past week and say we have been well spent in the service of God. We have been working hard to bring the Word of God to the people. We shall sleep if God fails us. We do not feel that failing is more to the right than failing in the cause of God. We have down to the pits or up on the cross, and you will be convinced of it. There is no end of us in this world. We have been working hard, and God has been with us. We have drunked professed to find peace Saturday night. All glory to God.

MARYVILLE—Capt. White. We have again soul converted this week, but we have been brought into the Word of God and are confident that the Word we have been preaching is true. We shall sleep if God fails us. We do not feel that failing is more to the right than failing in the cause of God. We have down to the pits or up on the cross, and you will be convinced of it. There is no end of us in this world. We have been working hard, and God has been with us. We have drunked professed to find peace Saturday night. All glory to God.
